Terms of Agreement
I understand that (INITIAL EACH OF THE STATEMENTS BELOW):

_____ Any use of these data beyond those specified in this agreement is prohibited. Additional investigations using this data must be delineated in a new, separate agreement.

_____ It is understood that these data have been stripped of personal identifiers and that they will be handled in accordance with the highest ethical standards for protection of confidentiality and privacy of human subjects.

_____ I will not share these data with any other individuals than those stated above without Approval from HighScope.

_____ I agree that if as part of data analyses, new variables that are based on this data set are created, I will provide HighScope with a copy of those newly created variables in a data file.

_____ As a part of this collaboration, it is understood that HighScope will be given adequate time to review all publications that use these data prior to their submission for publication.

_____ It is further agreed that HighScope staff will be included as authors on all such presentations, posters, speeches, etc. that involve these data and appropriate authorship credit is given in each instance.

_____ I will include HighScope in pursuing and securing any funding opportunities that are the result of work completed using these data. In keeping with that, HighScope reserves the right to be a consultant or co-principal investigator on new grants and/or contracts for new projects that I will pursue using these data.
