Kathy London
1956-1995

PAA Affairs, Spring 1995
The day before this issue went to press, Kathy London, co-editor of PAA Affairs, died of a pulmonary embolism at Holy Cross Hospital in Silver Spring, MD. Her sweet, gentle, yet clear voice will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her

PAA Affairs, Summer 1995
Kathy London, co-editor of PAA Affairs died on March 9th after a brief illness. She was born in Oscoda, Michigan in 1956 and received her early education there. She earned a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Michigan in 1978 and a Doctor of Philosophy from the same university in 1983. In 1983-84 she was on the staff of the Institute for Social Research of Michigan. In 1984-1985 she was on the staff of the Population Information Program at Johns Hopkins University, where she authored several issues of its periodical Population Reports. In September 1985 she took a position in the Marriage and Divorce Statistics Branch, Division of Vital Statistics, National Center for Health Statistics. In August of 1987, she moved to the Family Growth Statistics Branch, also in the Division of Vital Statistics, and worked there until her death. She was the author of many statistical reports, and was well-known among family demographers for her research on adoption and the children of divorced parents. She was active in the Population Association of America, where she was co-editor of the association’s newsletter beginning in 1993.

A scholarship fund at the University of Michigan has been established in Kathy’s memory. Donations (payable to the University of Michigan) may be sent to the University of Michigan Development Office, 350 S. Thayer Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104-1608. Please be sure to note on your check that it is ‘in memory of Kathy London.’

Michigan Population Studies Center
http://www.psc.isr.umich.edu/