

Seminar: Methodological Developments in Household Panel Surveys

Thursday, May 22, 2014

10 am – 12 pm

6050 ISR Thompson

All members of the ISR research community are invited to a roundtable seminar on recent methodological developments in household panel surveys, presented by representatives of the surveys, as listed below.

- Nicole Watson, University of Melbourne, will discuss the Household, Income, and Labour Dynamics in Australia (HILDA) Survey.
- Jurgen Schupp, German Institute for Economic Research, will discuss the German Socio-Economic Panel (SOEP) Study.
- Peter Lynn, University of Essex, will discuss the UK Household Longitudinal Survey (UKHLS), or the Understanding Society Study.
- Vicki Freedman, University of Michigan, will discuss the Panel Study of Income Dynamics (PSID).
- David Weir, University of Michigan, will discuss the Health and Retirement Study (HRS).

Graham Kalton, Westat, will moderate the roundtable and the open discussion.

Space is limited. Please RSVP: pagregor@umich.edu

Seminar is supported in part by the Michigan Center on the Demography of Aging (MiCDA)